The locomotive of the express and several coaches of the Waco-Marlin line were wrecked.

Fire department authorities declared the fire was of incendiary origin.

ELECTION LAW VIOLATIONS CHARGED IN WARRANTS

PORTSMOUTH — Charged with having induced three Portsmouth voters to violate election laws, warrants have been issued for the arrest of Arthur Herdman and Nick Parker, Pike-co Democratic workers. Three Portsmouth voters, Roy Nichols, Rhoda Abbott and Robert Abbott, were arrested last night on charges of having in their possession ballots that had been illegally obtained under the "absent voters law." They are said to have obtained the ballots from Pike-co, marked them and returned them. It is also charged that they are registered voters in Portsmouth, having resided here four years.

WELLSBURG, W. Va. — (United Press) — The jury returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of John Kaminski, 19-year-old union miner, charged with first degree murder on indictments growing out of the Cliftonville mine massacre July 17. The foreman of the jury reported to Judge Sommerville at 9:50 a. m. Kaminski was charged with murder in connection with the slaying of Sheriff John Duval and seven union miners. Young Kaminski was the first of 68 union miners charged with murder of Duval and seven workers. The other 67 trials will be rushed to completion, Judge Sommerville said. Kaminski on the stand, declared he had been forced into the fighting by a mob from Avella, Pa., which was marching on Cliftonville.

BLUNDER OF G. O. P. CHIEF SEEN

Bringing Cabinet Member to Ohio Believed Mistake

EXPECTED RESULT REVERSED

Defeat Means Repudiation of Harding Administration

CLEVELAND — (United Press) — Ohio Republican leaders were of the opinion Saturday that a tactical blunder was made in importing cabinet officers and others to plead with voters to stand by President Harding by supporting Carmel Thompson for governor.

Results have been rather the opposite of what was expected when this plan of campaign was decided upon. With election but three days off, changes favor Vic Donahay, Democratic nominee for governor, and Allee Pomerene, Democratic senator, the Republicans were claiming victory.

RESULT OF CONFERENCE
The campaign has so shaped itself that election of either Donahay or Pomerene will be considered a repudiation of the national administration. This claim couldn't have been raised if the administration had stood by its earlier hands-off policy. The decision to call national speakers to the Ohio battle ground followed a conference in Washington between President Harding, Thompson and Congressman Simeon D. Fess, who is opposing Pomerene for the senate.

FOURTH VICTIM OF NEW YORK FACTORY FIRE DIES

NEW YORK — The fourth victim of the fierce fire which yesterday afternoon destroyed an East Thirtieth-st celluloid factory died early today. She was Miss Frances Aragonne, who was trapped with eleven other young women on the third floor of the burning building. Two women fell to their death during the fire and a third died last night in a hospital. Four others were still in the hospital in a serious condition today and another was convalescing at her home. Three escaped unhurt.

MAY ATTACK WILL OF SLAIN MATE

Mrs. Rosier Expected to Claim Her Victim's Estate

PHILADELPHIA — (Associated Press) — Back home with her year-old baby after nine months in the county prison and passing thru the ordeal of a long murder trial, Mrs. Catherine Rosier, who late yesterday was acquitted of the charges of killing her husband and his stenographer, was happy today but worn out. "It is just like waking out of a bad dream to find myself at home again," said the 22-year-old widow today.

It is expected by friends of Mrs. Rosier that she will contest the will left by her husband leaving his entire estate estimated at $60,000, to his eleven-year-old son Oscar, Jr., by a former wife, and Arthur Rosier, brother of the dead man. The will was written on a leaf torn from a memorandum book while Rosier lay on his deathbed in a hospital the day of the shooting.

BURGLARS RIFLE OFFICE SAFE

Combination of Hyman-Ackerman Strong Box is Worked

MAKE AWAY WITH $60

Entrance to Building Forced Thru Basement Window

Professional safe combination experts of a high order visited "Lima" Friday night.

This was discovered Saturday morning, when the Hyman-Ackerman Grain elevator reported to police that the safe had been opened during the night and the contents rifled.

The loss, which was approximately $60, consisted of the company's petty cash, which was kept in the office to pay small bills. The safe, which was not tampered, had been neatly opened by working the combination. According to officials of the company, only an expert could solve the combination.

EXONERATE EMPLOYEES
The safe was comparatively new, and the combination was known only to two members of the clerical force, who, according to Mr. Hyman, are above suspicion, having been employed by the company for several years.

Entrance into the building was gained by forcing a basement window, it was discovered. An examination of the ground failed to disclose whether the thugs had traveled in an automobile, as the ground near the elevator was cut up by wagon tracks.

Police have asked the cooperation of police in surrounding cities and a complete check-up of known safe experts will be made, it was said.

TWO WOMEN ATTACKED WITH AX BY CHICAGO MAN

CHICAGO — Armed with an ax, Michael Carlotti today attacked Mrs. Antonietta Gugliere and her daughter, Bernice, 18.

Mrs. Gugliere was probably fatally wounded.

The attack was the outcome of a quarrel between the three arising over Carlotti's affection for Bernice after he promised to marry Mrs. Gugliere, police stated. Carlotti escaped.

PHILLIPS TRIAL IS NEARING CLOSE

Testimony of Defense Will be Completed Monday

LOS ANGELES — (United Press) — Practically all evidence in the "hammer murder" trial of Mrs. Clara Phillips charged with killing Mrs. Alberta Meadows has been placed before the jury.

The defense will close Monday when five attorneys testify that Mrs. Phillips was temporarily insane when she is alleged to have beaten Mrs. Meadows to death with a hammer.

The state is gathering its forces for its final fling—an attack on the testimony of Mrs. E. L. McElroy. The state still believes it can be demonstrated that Mrs. McElroy's story of a love affair between Phillips and Mrs. Meadows, which drove Mrs. Phillips insane with jealousy was groundless.

SENTENCED TO JAIL

CINCINNATI — Found guilty of making a false income tax return, Clifford Emmich was sentenced to seven months in the county jail and fined $1,000 by Federal Judge Peck.

Two Bodies Exhumed in Probe of Chicago Case

DEATHS BLAMED ON PRISONERS

Second Woman Involved in Suspected Murders

CHICAGO — (United Press) Police today exhumed two more bodies in their search for a second Mrs. Bluebeard as a result of the confession of Mrs. Tillie Kimek, who admitted she poisoned her last husband. Kimek is in a serious condition at a local hospital.

Arsenic enough to kill four men was found in the body of Frank Kupeczyk, second husband of Mrs. Kimek, whose body was exhumed.

The two bodies dug up today are those of Joseph Mitke, first husband of Mrs. Kimek, and Wojcik Sturmer, husband of Mrs. Nellie Sturmer, who told police she gave Mrs. Kimek the poison which she gave her third husband.

Police declared Mrs. Kimek may have been the "student" of Mrs. Sturmer.

Both women are held in jail here.

AIR RECORD SET

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — The world's distance record for an airplane flight was broken today by the army aviators, Lieutenants MacReady and Kelly, shortly after their attempted non-stop air journey from San Diego, Calif., to New York.

PASS TIERRE HAUTE

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. — Lieutenants MacReady and Kelly, attempting a non-stop flight from San Diego to New York, passed over Terre Haute at 7:52 this morning. Persons who saw the big plane said it was travelling approximately 150 miles an hour and was about at an altitude of 2,000 feet.

Mother In Wm. Fox "Silver Wings" Says Women Will Soon

They Can Raise Family and Still Realize Professional Desires

"Mother."

Few words in the universal vocabulary of man create the inspiration, engender the fundamental love that girdles the earth since time immemorial, or so effectively stand as a guiding post for reckless youth.

Motherhood—it is the only fundamental thing agreed upon by philosophers of all time as being the ultimate height of individual and universal achievement.

What greater achievement could any woman desire than to be the mother of a Lincoln, a Washington or a Shakespeare?

It should be, indeed, the height of ambition, the absolute ultimate in the desire of every woman—and in the great majority of instances it is.

Mary Carr, the mother of six charming children and an actress who more universally interprets the real American mother than any other woman, believes and expresses such ideas as stated above.

AVERAGE AMERICAN MOTHER
In her motion picture characterizations she so truly depicts these ideas that there can be no denying she really lives the roles she portrays on the shadow stage. In the William Fox production, "Silver Wings," she is just an average American mother, daily meeting the problems of motherhood.

"What few women do not believe it now, will soon learn that the greatest achievement they can possibly reach is to be the mother of a noble son or daughter," said Mrs. Carr.

"It need not interfere with one's other ambitions. Of course it might for a while, but I believe I have proved beyond doubt that it is possible for a mother to realize her other desires and still fulfill the greatest mission in the life of womanhood."

"With a family of six wonderful children I still find time to realize the one ambition I have cherished since I started my career on the stage—that is to depict the ideas of motherhood on the screen, where they would be seen by millions in all parts of the world."

"But regardless of how strong a woman's ambition to succeed in any profession or business might be, I cannot understand anyone desiring to abandon what should be the height of ambition of every woman—motherhood."

DELPHOS GRID OUTFIT TRIUMPHS OVER WAPAKONETA

BATTLE IS EXCITING

A 20-yard pass in the third quarter from Shaffer to Beardsley was the straw that broke the camel's back in the game Friday afternoon between Delphos and Wapakoneta. The high schools in Wapakoneta, a small coup did more than break a 15-13 tie—it gave Delphos the necessary margin and paved the way to a victory.

Delphos won 27 to 13 in one of the most exciting high school games ever seen in Wapakoneta.

The last quarter was played in darkness. Players were not distinguishable in the final melee in which Wapakoneta strove desperately to score.

It was in the third quarter, after Wapakoneta had punted to midfield, and the Delphos backs had carried the ball to their opponents' 25-yard line, that the Delphos quarterback threw a long pass to the visitors' star left halfback. He caught the ball over his shoulder and plunged five yards across the Wapak goal line for the touchdown.

DELPHOS KICKS HARD
Grit and light enabled Delphos to come up from behind in the second quarter. The visitors pushed Wapak to within five yards of its own goal, but lost the ball on an attempted pass and Delphos recovered. He punted from behind his own goal line, and Delphos ran the ball back to the 15-yard line, where several players, an off tackle smash by McDonald and a goal from placement by Beardsley, tied the score 13-13.

Delphos scored its first touchdown two minutes of play. Wapak went to the 45-yard line. Delphos went down the field, a brilliant run by Spellman around right and putting the ball over. The try for point failed.

Wapakoneta plucked up courage and upon Delphos' kickoff, the local backfield, Klipfel, Wehner, Schnell and Runkle, made first down twice by steady plunging. The line was advanced despite several fine tackles by Delphos players, notably Judkins, who plunged three several times for remarkable efforts.

On the Delphos 15-yard line, Idle took a pass from Schnell and went across for Wapakoneta's first touchdown. The kick failed. The score was tied at 13-13.

The evenness of the match became noticeable after the first quarter. It was gone and taken, with honors even until the last period.

The second quarter opened with the ball within the shadow of the Delphos goal. A plunge of two yards by Runkle over the Delphos line and a clean kick from placement over the bar gave Wapak the advantage at 13-0.

Klipfel threatened to score another touchdown soon after when he carried the oval on the first play after a kickoff and raced 60 yards to the 15-yard line. The visitor to within ten yards of the Delphos goal, where Spellman cut him down. It was a beautiful run and a good tackle. Klipfel was knocked out, but pluckily stuck to his guns.

FORCED TO PUNT
Toward the end of the third quarter, Wapak forced Delphos to punt by intercepting two passes and killing an end run. Wapak got the ball and Schnell felt a pass to Klipfel that went for 15 yards. Under made two yards and was injured. Marshall replacing him, Schnell called thru for five and helped made two. Delphos fought desperately as the quarter ended.

It was a fluke that gave Wapak its final touchdown. When the last quarter began, a pass by Schnell was intercepted by Beardsley. He failed to hold the ball and fumbled in, dove and prevented the ball from falling to the ground. Only one point separated the teams. Wapak's kick failed and the score was 20 to 13.

With 14 minutes to play, Beardsley and McDonald became an instantaneous pun and hustled the ball thru the Wapakoneta. McDonald carried the ball for the first touchdown down had Beardsley made the last successful try for extra point. These maneuvers were staged in semi-darkness. The crowd had to crowd onto the field to see what was transpiring. Lineup

COACH IS AT MERCY OF PLAYERS

Just before the game between Michigan and Ohio State I was discussing the chances of Michigan with Coach Yost and his assistant, George Little.

"Michigan has a good team," said Yost, "it is green and inexperienced in spots, but it has plenty of power. I have two great ends in Kirke and Goegel. If they do their part and my line is able to hold State the backfield will do the rest."

"The boys know how football should be played. However, with a half dozen green men making their debut in a big game, something may happen."

"Often the strain causes an inexperienced player to forget much of what the coaches have told him."

In the game with State the Michigan line did its part and the work of Goebel and Kirke on the ends worked. The backfield did the rest, as Yost said they would. Michigan won 19 to 0.

PRINCETON WAS GAME
Just before the Princeton game with Chicago I discussed with Coach Bill Roper of Princeton the chances of the Tigers to wipe out the defeat of 1921.

"My team is green and light, but it is game. It will fight to the end. Like all Princeton teams it is never defeated until the whistle has blown."

The lack of experience may be fatal. In a practice a coach can expound the theories of the game to his players, he can tutor them in every trick of the trade, but when the game starts it is up to the players.

"When the whistle blows the team can make or unmake a coach with a very few plays. I am looking for the best, confident of one thing, my team will fight to a finish."

MISTAKES PROVES COSTLY
The game had been in progress only a few minutes when the words of Coach Roper were brought back to me in a most forcible manner.

After the game had been under way only a few minutes Strohmeyer of Chicago kicked to Gorman on Princeton's 45-yard line.

Gorman handed the ball close to the sidelines. He worked himself out of bounds after the tackle. The official, however, ruled that the ball was down inside the line.

The ball was put in play on the 45-yard line about a foot from the sideline. Gorman, by trying to go out of bounds when tackled so as to have the ball brought in 15 yards and be in position to kick, showed he had his head up.

THREE PLAYS WENT WRONG
It seemed certain that he would try to go out of bounds on the next play. But he didn't. Then came three plays that caused Roper to pace up and down the sideline like a wild man. No one blamed him either.

On a fake pass Cleaves lost 15 yards. Both teams were offside and the ball was brought back. Cleaves made four yards, but Princeton was offside and was penalized five yards. A pass, Cleaves to Shively, lost 12 yards. Instead of being out of danger Princeton was on the Tiger 30-yard line and forced to kick.

Chicago got possession of the ball on its 35-yard line and in nine plays scored a touchdown. Bad judgment had gotten the Tigers off wrong in the first few minutes.

BLOCKED PUNT MAKES TROUBLE
In the second period, after the Tigers had forged ahead, 7 to 6, King of Chicago kicked off to Cleaves, who brought the ball back 25 yards to Princeton's 30-yard line. Three plays gained only five yards.

Coach Roper at this stage rushed Van Gerbig, star Princeton punter, into the fray to boot the ball out of danger.

The ball was passed to Van Gerbig. He seemed to fairly fondle it. Never was a kick gotten off more slowly. It was partly blocked after traveling only two yards when it went out of bounds.

It was Chicago's ball on Princeton's 35-yard line. Five plays sent it over for a touchdown.

Coach Bill Roper of Princeton was like a caged lion at this stage and no one blamed him. His players had failed to follow instructions, to play proper football.

All of which proves that the coach can drill his team in the fundamentals and tricks, but when the whistle blows it is entirely up to the players.

Central Is Hampered

Lima football fans will see an unusual game Saturday afternoon when Central meets the highly-touted Tiffin aggregation.

The game will be unusual in that second string men for the most part will be called upon to defend the colors of the school. And it is up to the reserves to show they are equal to the task.

With five regulars laid up Central's hope of winning over the team, which held Toledo Scott to 18 points, is considerably lowered, although the second team men are entering the game with a determination to show their caliber.

Whatever the final score, Central is sure to put up a stiff fight and Tiffin will know that they have played one of the hardest fighting eleven in the state, even though they lack ability of shove across touchdowns when needed.

Coach Burdette's crew of huskies is not expecting to be pushed by Van Wert, and last minute reports from the camp of the Southern warriors indicate that several new combinations in the lineup are to be tried out, the coach being content with his present lineup.

EXPERT CHANGES IN CONFERENCE

COLUMBUS—Followers of Ohio conference football today expected changes in the conference standing as the result of this afternoon's contests.

Wooster, second to Wesleyan, in state standing, probably won't lose anything in its game with Denison on Denison's grid and Oberlin, fourth place, seems to have a good chance of beating Wittenberg.

Other Ohio games today include: Heidelberg at Otterbein. Case at Mount Union. Huron at Reserve. Ohio Northern at Akron. St. Xavier at Ohio University. Kenyon at DePaul. Earlham at Muskingum. Baldwin at Antioch. Grove City at Marietta.

WAITE HIGH AFTER CHAMPIONSHIP

TOLEDO—Waite High School's football team, Toledo's scholastic champions, well on its way toward the national schoolboy championship plays the Lane Tech., eleven of Chicago, in an inter-sectional game here today.

Waite High, said to be the heaviest school boy team in the country with a line average of 186 pounds and a backfield average of 170 pounds, is credited with victories over Cleveland West Tech., Doane Academy of Granville, Ohio; Louisville Male High and Harrisburg (Pa.) Technical High.

Other inter-sectional games on the Waite school are: Parkersburg, W. Va., Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and South Bend, Ind.

Three Inter-sectional Games On Saturday's Grid Program

NEW YORK—Three inter-sectional contests heighten interest in this afternoon's football schedule in the east.

Harvard will call on its second string men to check Florida's invasion, unless the Southerners display unexpected strength. Pennsylvania will be host to another eleven from Dixie, Alabama, while the third and most keenly awaited inter-sectional struggle will pit the strong Nebraska team against Syracuse, which a week ago held Penn State to a tie.

Sharing interest with the inter-sectional contests will be the battle at the Polo grounds between Lafayette and Washington and Jefferson, two eleven undefeated since late in the fall of 1920.

Other outstanding contests on the schedule will bring together Yale and Brown at New Haven; Columbia and Cornell at Ithaca; Princeton and Swarthmore at Princeton; Holy Cross and Georgetown at Georgetown; Boston University and Dartmouth at Hanover, N. H.; Union and Hobart at Geneva, N. Y.; and Lehigh and Colgate at Bethlehem, N. Y.

CHICAGO—The war of words in the Western Conference was made a side issue for a few hours today while plunging backs and charging lines brushed aside the breath of football scandal.

Illinois and Wisconsin whose acrimonious charges against each other ranging from violation of rules against professionalism to the profastage all set for Wittenberg's biggest home game of the season, at Springfield is in the flurry of the football fever. Today's game will mean much to both Wittenberg and Oberlin and the fans are looking forward to a fight to the finish. Although the odds are a little in favor of the visiting team, Coach Godfrey's men have always had the reputation of being dangerous to the fond hopes of any eleven.

WITTENBERG SET

The weather bids fair to be of real football nature, and unless the clouds bring the rain threatened for several days, there should be a mammoth crowd at Zimmerman Field when the opening whistle blows.

Coach Godfrey's warriors are ready for the battle and prepared to put up their hardest fight.

SPRINGFIELD, O.—With the national of principles and ethics set the conference ago, had more laudable undertakings in hand in the way of football games.

Incidentally these two warring institutions engage in the only two regular conference games today. Wisconsin meets Minnesota at Minneapolis in the most important struggle in the Midwest. Northwestern has invaded the camp of the Illinois.

Three teams—Iowa, Ohio State and Chicago—are idle, while Michigan, Indiana and Purdue clash with team outside the Big Ten—the Wolverines playing the Michigan Aggies, Indiana meeting Notre Dame and Purdue engaging Wabash.

JACKSON WINS

DAYTON, O.—"Tut" Jackson, Washington C. H., colored heavyweight who is scheduled to fight Floyd Johnson, started while heavy weight from California in a 12 round decision contest in this city before the Miami Athletic club at Lakeside pavilion Thursday night, November 3, started his winter campaign by stopping Jack Martin in four rounds at Washington C. H. last night.

The Miami Athletic club are fortunate in getting Floyd Johnson signed to meet "Tut" as his services are being sought by promoters throughout the country since he stopped Bob Martin, the A. E. F. champ at Madison Square Garden. Much interest has been aroused by the fans in this vicinity over the coming battle between these two giants and from all indications, Lakeside pavilion will be packed.

Dutchman Mitchell, Miami's coming walter champion, will meet Nick Leonard of Akron, in one of his 8 round bouts, while Charlie Winters, conqueror of Mutt Snyder will tangle with Joe Gorman, the Pacific coast bantam champion in another 8 round bout.

Bitter Battle Is Expected When W. and J. Lafayette Meet

(By HENRY L. FARRELL)

NEW YORK—Two of the greatest and most powerful teams of the east, undefeated in two years in a string of seventeen straight games, meet here this afternoon, when the eleven of Lafayette and Washington and Jefferson play at the Polo Grounds.

As a victory by either eleven will have much to do with the recognition of the mythical eastern championship, New York has shown as much interest in the tussle as in Army-Navy game and a crowd of 40,000 is expected.

The early morning skies were hazy and overcast and rain was threatened with a rise in temperature.

The W. & J. eleven arrived yesterday and worked out on the Polo grounds, but the Lafayette team put the finishing touches on at home and did not arrive until this morning.

PROHIBITION has done more to break down the Spirit of America than any other agency.

That spirit opposes oppression in all forms and stands for the sanctity of the American family and the American home.

This amendment will prevent the search of the home and the seizure of person or property by irresponsible, non-resident persons acting under the cloak of authority afforded by oppressive laws passed under the whip and spur of professional prohibitionists.

This amendment was initiated by petition, signed by 240,000 men and women voters of Ohio.

That petition was attacked by the professional prohibitionists and it is now on the ballot because the Supreme Court of Ohio ordered its submission.

The people are resuming and asserting their rule in supporting the Beer and Light Wine Amendment. Join the procession. Vote for this amendment!

YOUR SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Prepared for The Lima News by Rev. Hugh T. Stevenson

Human suffering, sorrow, and sickness constantly appealed to Christ. One of the elements of His popularity in the early days of His ministry in Galilee was that He healed every form of sickness that was brought to Him. While His work as a physician was only incidental to His mission, He was so "filled with compassion" by the conditions of men that it became an important part of His ministry. He cited it to John as an evidence that He was the Messiah. The healed physician, who is the author of the Gospel, that we are studying gives us in the portion assigned for this week the story of several cures performed by our Lord.

JESUS THE GREAT PHYSICIAN. Luke 4:31-41.
Golden Text—Himself took our infirmities, and bare our diseases.—Matt. 8:17.

Shortly after He transferred His headquarters to Capernaum and made His home there He commenced His healing ministry. It started in the synagogue where Jesus delivered one with an unclean spirit. Returning to Peter's home they found the mother-in-law of Simon Peter was suffering from a severe fever, which was quite common in that section due to the malarial breeding character of its marshes. The Master cured her instantly so that she ministered to them. When the sun had gone down a great multitude flocked to his home, as a result of His miracle in the synagogue in the morning, and Christ healed all who were ill or possessed by demons. During His first missionary trip in Galilee He cured a leper. The news of this miracle spread rapidly and people in Judea and Galilee became interested in His ministry.

It did not take long for the fact that He had returned to His home, which was probably the house of Simon Peter, to be common knowledge. He was sought to hear His teaching and seek help from the Great Physician, who could cure every disease. His popularity attracted the attention of the religious leaders, who had rejected Him during His ministry in Judea. They came seeking to find some basis for charges, which they desired to file against the young Teacher and Physician, so that they could destroy His popularity and power. Their presence marked the commencement of hostilities. They found what they were seeking during Christ's healing of the man with the palsy, who was carried by four persons' friends to Jesus to be healed.

PALSY PATIENT HEALED. Luke gives us certain details, concerning the Master's work as a Physician, which are omitted by the other evangelists, but none of them tell us how the four came to bring their friend to Christ. His palsy may have been caused as David Smith suggests by his "unbridled excess." They carried him upon an improvised stretcher made by taking hold of the four corners of the rug, which was laid out. When they reached the Master's headquarters they found that they could not carry the man sick with palsy thru the crowd, who were indifferent to the man's need, so they made a way to reach Jesus by their own initiative and invention. Love and friendship are never baffled by difficulties. The stairs, which are usually on the outside of a Palestinian house, gave them access to the roof. They then removed the temporary covering that kept the heat from the court where Christ was teaching. He was not disturbed by the interruption. He read in their actions, the faith of the four men, as well as that of the palsy patient. He had been encouraged by their endeavors and the anxious look of the man with the palsy to cure him. "The healing miracles of Jesus were always deeds in which those who were cured themselves or brought to be cured had a part. No one was healed in Nazareth because their unbelief and hostility prevented any miracles being performed. The poor paralytic would have been lost without the help of his friends. The door of ministry to the sick is open to all of us. We are called into duty by promoting hospitals, visiting nurses and better health departments. The profession of interest in the sick is valuable unless we attempt to help them by personal service, as well as by promoting co-operative effort for human welfare. It is the call for individual sympathy and kindness that keeps the world from becoming callous. There is nothing that will brighten the dark hours of human trial like the sunshine of a generous soul calling personally to express their personal sympathy and offering to help. The successful work on the part of the four, who allowed nothing to interfere with their bringing the suffering paralytic to Christ to be healed by the great Physician, ought to encourage us to bring our friends to Jesus to be saved and healed.

FORGIVENESS OF SIN. Forgiveness of sin had to precede healing according to the theological teaching. Jesus read the thought of the worried man, as he was being let down into His presence. This may have caused the change in method in dealing with the man that was palsied, which resulted in the healing of the paralytic. It was irresistible between our Lord and His enemies. His tender and sympathetic words, according to Matthew, encouraged the sick man, whom Jesus called, "Son," urging him to "be of good cheer, thy sins are forgiven thee." Christ was the cause of the man's trouble when He forgave him his sins. The Master's words went straight to his troubled heart. They had an instantaneous effect upon him as the words came with authority and power to his distressed soul. The words of the Lord's enemies with anger and scorn, as they held that only God could forgive sins.

The cynical religious critics of Jesus felt that they were looking for as they considered that Christ's assumption of the authority to forgive sins was nothing less than blasphemy. Jesus read their hearts and when He revealed the fact, they ought to have recognized that He was more than a prophet. The prejudice kept them from seeing that life was anything more than a man. He pressed the battle when he challenged them to immediate demonstration that would prove beyond question that He was not a blasphemer or pretender but that He possessed the authority and power to forgive sins and to heal. There could be only one reply to His question that it would be easier to say "thy sins are forgiven thee" than it would be to say, "Arise and walk." He commanded the man, who was the cause of the controversy, without waiting for their answer, to "Arise, take up thy couch, and go to thy house." Straightway the palsied man responded to Christ's commands. He arose before them, rolled up his rug, which was his couch, picked it up and moved out thru the amazed crowd and went into his home "glorifying God." His actions caused the multitude to glorify God, who "had given such power to a man." They were afraid and confessed that they had seen strange things that day. Jesus proved His deity beyond question by His cure of the paralytic.

MODERN MESSAGE OF THE MIRACLE. The Pharisees and Doctors of the law were correct in their theological principles that only God could forgive sins, but they were wrong when they allowed their prejudice against the Master to influence their judgment and reasoning, which prevented them from recognizing that He was "God manifest in the flesh," and that the first step in our redemption required His incarnation. It was only thru His coming into the human race that forgiveness of our sins was made possible. Our Lord established the fact that He had authority to forgive sin and heal all forms of sickness by the miraculous cure of the paralytic.

Modern science recognizes not only that sin is the cause of many of the ills, which curse the human race, but also that religion has contributed toward the healing of many who have had some form of insanity, epilepsy and mental or some functional physical system. Medical practitioners have testified to the efficacy of prayer in the healing of the sick. The "Great Physician" is still continuing His ministry of healing. He is using the medical colleges, hospitals, sanitariums, and research laboratories in curing the ills of men. The sovereign cure for worry is faith. We ought to draw nearer to the Lord Jesus, whenever sickness, suffering or sorrow enters our life or that of our friends. We ought to allow nothing to interfere with our first duty of bringing all, who are unwell, to the Saviour for moral weakness is far more deplorable than physical suffering. It is ever ready to hear our cry and reward our faith. He is healer of all iniquities and diseases today. We ought not to forget the services of our physicians, yet they recognize the power of the Great Physician, who alone is able to cure all cases brought to Him, since He "Himself took our infirmities, and bare our diseases."

After ten year's test, mother of these children praises Father John's medicine

After using Father John's Medicine for over ten years in her family Mrs. Swan Pearson of Oakland, Nebraska, writes, "Whenever any of my family got a cold or need building up I give them Father John's Medicine. Two of the children had pneumonia and I am sure it helped them to get well. I can't praise it enough and as long as I can buy I shall never be without Father John's Medicine." This experience is like that of thousands of other mothers who depend on Father John's Medicine for colds, coughs and as a general body builder. It is safe for all the family to take. A pure food medicine. No drugs.

YES AND NO
ARE we "kidding" ourselves when we talk about the great advantages derived from labor-saving devices?
The Pennsylvania Railroad prints this on the cover of its dining car menu:

"Millions of tons of ore are carried in solid trainloads over the Pennsylvania system every year to feed the blast furnaces of the iron and steel industry.

"In order to transfer the ore from cargo boats of the Great Lakes to railroad cars, the Pennsylvania system operates giant electric unloading machines at its ore docks on Lake Erie.

"Prior to 1882 this work was done by hand-shovel and wheel-barrow at the rate of about 100 tons a day.

"Today four machines at Cleveland can empty a vessel and load cars at the rate of 3000 tons an hour."

THE actual mining and transportation of iron ore have also been speeded up by labor-saving devices, the same as handling the ore at the docks.

All this is generally accepted as "more economical."

However, in the days when iron ore was handled by wheel-barrow and hand-shovel, the ore cost $4 a ton at Lake Erie docks.

Today the price is between $5 and $6 a ton.

It looks as if, the more economical the process, the higher the cost.

YOU find the same state of contradiction in wheat. In 1860 the cash price of wheat at Chicago was as low as 66 cents a bushel. Today, even with farm prices far too low compared with other prices, wheat costs a lot more than it did in 1860.

All this, despite the introduction of tremendous labor-saving devices and processes in growing the wheat and shipping it to market.

IN general, it seems that labor-saving devices tend to increase selling price, on the average and in the long run.

This is counteracted by two important things:

FIRST: The buying power of the dollar has changed. A dollar represents less buying power, today, than 50 cents did when grandpa was a boy. Every one has more dollars, too, so the dollar is not a fair measure of price.

SECOND: The introduction of labor-saving devices and processes has released human labor for other work. This enables humanity to produce thousands of articles for general use, where in the old days such commodities were numbered by the hundreds. We of today have a wider assortment of articles, both necessities and luxuries, than a few generations ago.

That is the long-range trend, a higher standard of living. Price is secondary. When a dollar would buy almost anything, as old men put it, "the trouble was, no one had the dollar."

INTERESTED IN OURSELVES

A new grass, which gives golf balls a better bounce, is developed from "creeping bent" grass. The development is the work of Uncle Sam's Bureau of Plant Industry.

This interests at least 10,000 times as many as care to hear about the discovery of a new star. Don't "pan" the human brain. We can't use stars. But we can use golf grass.

People are interested in the things that affect them personally. That's why women read the ads first unless a newspaper headline catches their eye.

MONUMENT

IN memory of their parents, a couple of New York men endow two beds in a Denver tuberculosis sanitarium. So much money is banked. The interest will take care of two worthy poor cases, free of charge, all the time.

You've heard of such things. But this instance is rare enough, at that, to get into the telegraph news. As a monument an endowed bed beats a block of granite. Suggestion.

SMASH

THE seemingly impossible does happen occasionally. For instance, you'd imagine it impossible for two airplanes to collide head-on in daylight, considering the room they have for dodging.

But it happens in Honolulu. Two army aviators killed, two others hurt.

Unusual now. Common later, when the air will swarm with planes by thousands, like old-time flights of passenger pigeon.

This collision of two airplanes sets you wondering how dangerous it will be for people on the ground when airplanes become as common as flippers are now.

Live 50 more years and you'll see as many airplane wrecks as you now see smashed-up autos. Seems a long way off, to begin thinking about how to protect pedestrians. But let's start. We Americans are famous for never getting a law until years after we need it. What do you suggest? Limit flying to airplanes in the country, fliers barred above cities?

HEREDITY

A government chemist, says the reason the best "moonshine" liquor is made around Peoria, Ill., is because that section had so many big distilleries before prohibition. Distilleries, most of them, have shut down. But the art of making liquor lives on as part of community knowledge. Thru succeeding generations it has become almost hereditary.

Possibly a few generations will produce some excellent home-brewers in our community. But present samples make this extremely doubtful.
